

Execulink Telecom Celebrates its Third Annual Gifts of Christmas Donation Program

(Woodstock, ON) November 30, 2020 – 'Tis the season to be jolly! Execulink is celebrating the festive season with its third annual Gifts of Christmas donation program. The local telecom provider has a well-documented history of giving back to communities across the Ontario counties it services.

Ian Stevens, President and CEO of Execulink Telecom, shares “Non-profit work is never easy and this year’s Gifts of Christmas recipients have worked especially hard during an unprecedented year of challenges. On behalf of Execulink, I’d like to thank the incredible non-profits and charities in our communities for all that they do. We are proud to support their causes and hope the Gifts of Christmas program helps them to achieve their goals of continuing to positively impact their communities as we venture into a unique holiday season.”

The Gifts of Christmas donation program was first officially introduced in 2018 following Execulink Telecom’s long-standing tradition of holiday giving. Generating immense community impact and positive engagement for the recipients in its communities, the telecom provider aims to continue this annual tradition for years to come.

“Supporting our local communities is the benchmark of who we are, so we’re thrilled to be giving back to some wonderful non-profits, charities, and organizations,” says Andrea Atkinson, Vice President Customer Experience at Execulink Telecom. “Our Gifts of Christmas program allows us to live our Mission, Vision, and Values throughout the month of December and spread festive cheer during a time when many need it most. Christmas reminds us that though we may be part of different towns and cities across Ontario, we’re all united in our goal to make our communities even more awesome.”

Starting December 1st, the recipients will be announced in the weeks leading up to Christmas.
