

Execulink Supports Port Rowan Public School Playground Fundraiser on Day Six of Gifts of Christmas

(Woodstock, ON) December 14, 2024 – Execulink Telecom is excited to announce the sixth day of its 7th annual Gifts of Christmas program, a celebration of community spirit and giving back. Each day, Execulink donates $500 to a deserving organization, highlighting their important contributions to the areas they serve.

On this sixth day of giving, Execulink is proud to support the Port Rowan Public School Playground Fundraiser, an initiative dedicated to raising funds to replace the school's playground equipment. The fundraising committee is working hand-in-hand with the community to provide a safe, inclusive space where children can play, learn, and grow for years to come.

"Playgrounds are essential spaces for fostering imagination, friendship, and physical activity," says Ian Stevens, CEO of Execulink Telecom. "We're honored to support the Port Rowan Public School Playground Fundraiser and their commitment to creating a safe and enjoyable environment for the children in their community."

Execulink encourages others to join in supporting this important project and help ensure future generations have access to a high-quality play area.
